

PENINSUL'ART EXHIBITION

St Ives & District Twinning Association are pleased to announce the programme of events for this exciting cultural event taking place next Sunday. We hope you will all come along and enjoy this unique twinning collaboration of exhibitions featuring t-shirts customised by artists in St Ives and Camaret-sur-Mer, with music and dance throughout the town.

SATURDAY 7 JUNE

8.30pm – Launch Party at the Western Hotel with “Last of Many” (free entry)

SUNDAY 8 JUNE

From 11am - Exhibitions of decorated T-shirts at St Ives Arts Club, Penwith Galleries, St Ives Society of Artists, The School of Painting; and along Lambeth Walk.

T-shirts will also be displayed in various shop windows throughout the town.

2pm – At the Guildhall there will be music by Bagas Porthia and speeches by the Mayor, the Ex Grand Bard of Cornwall, the Camaret representative and Ron Tulley of the Twinning Association.

Throughout the day there will be music and Cornish dance around the town with a Piper and volunteers wearing painted T-shirts.

2.30pm – Dancing and music outside the Guildhall

3.15pm – Dancing and music in the Tate Loggia

3.30pm – Singing in the St Ives Society of Artists

4.00pm - Dancing and music at the Penwith Galleries

8pm - “Nos Lowen – Happy Night” with Bagas Porthia at St Ives Arts Club. Admission £2 on the door (BYO wine).